Client's Rights

- ⌘ Voices Against Violence provides services regardless of gender, age, health status (including HIV-positive), physical, mental or emotional disability, sexual orientation, sexual preference, sexual identity, socio-economic status, race, national origin, immigration status, or religious or politic affiliation. This infers a thoughtful plan for outreach to diverse communities, i.e. outreach is a service to which all prospective clients have a right.
- ⌘ You have the right to respectful treatment
- ⌘ You have the right to have your individual information/records kept confidential according to NH RSA 173-C. You can ask Voices staff about your rights under NH RSA 173-C.
- ⌘ You have the right to access individual records.
- ⌘ You have the right to make your own decisions, within the rules and policies of Voices Against Violence.
- ⌘ You have the right to know and understand all of the rules by which you must abide.
- ⌘ You have the right to offer suggestions and input concerning Voices' programming.
- ⌘ You have the right to make a complaint about Voices' services. The first step is to take the complaint to Voices staff. If no resolution is reached, you have the right to address your complaint through our grievance procedure.
